C., November 7.—In the United States Court, on application of the Southern Railway, Judge Boyd issued a temporary restraining order against the city of Burlington, enjoining the further prosecution of work of opening up a street crossing the railroad track. REV. D. H. ROLSTON DECLINES CALL

Popular Pastor Announces That He Will Remain in City.

READY FOR CONFERENCE

Richmond Odd-Fellows to Visit Lodge in Petersburg.

Times-Dispatch Bureau, 109 North Sycamore Street, Petersburg, Va., November 7.

The Rev. D. H. Rolston, pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church in this city, made the gratifying announcement to his congregation Sunday morning that he had declined the call recently extended to him by unanimous vote of the congregation of the Old Stone Church at Lewisburg, W. Va.

Ready for Conference.

The several Methodist churches in this city, have made up their reports for the present conference year. These reports, it is said, will show a prosperous year spiritually as well as financially, and advancement in all lines of church work, with all obligations and assessments met. There have been larger contributions for missions, home and foreign, than ever before, and an increase of interest in all branches of religious work.

Of course, great interest is felt in the appointments to be announced at conference. One change will certainly be made, that of the pastor at Washington Street Church, the mother Methodist Church in the city. Last spring the Rev. Thomas R. Reeves, after serving only a few months as pastor, resigned to accept the position of assistant principal of the Blackstone Female Institute. The vacancy in this charge has since been acceptably filled by the Rev. F. R. Chenault. It is understood that the official board of the church has asked for the appointment of the Rev. George E. Booker, of the Impression prevails that this request will be granted.

There may possibly be one or more other changes in this city, though none of the present pastors has served out his four years' limit.

Accident to Aged Woman.

Mrs. Frances Brown, aged eighty years and a much respected woman, had the misfortune to fall down the stairs at her home on Byrne Street on Sunday and to receive painful injuries. She was rendered unconscious by the fall, and was severely cut and bruised about the head. Fortunately no bones were broken.

Sherman Collett, the youth who accidentally shot by a companion who was out hunting in Dinwiddie county on Saturday, is getting along well. The shot caused a flesh wound, not as serious as at first thought, and he will recover.

Visit of Richmond Odd-Fellows.

Patrick Henry, Belvidere and Henderson Lodges of Odd-Fellows, of Richmond, have accepted an invitation extended by Monroe, Petersburg and Appomattox Lodges to visit the city on a fraternal visit to the latter some day during this month, the date to be fixed later.

The local lodges will be the hosts and are making arrangements for a cordial reception and entertainment of their brethren of Richmond. It is expected that fully 100 members of the Richmond lodges will come over among them some of the most prominent officers of the order, and needless to say, a most delightful occasion is anticipated.

City Non-Taxable Property.

As has been published in The Times-Dispatch, the new assessment of taxable estate in Petersburg shows an increase of $2,027.65, or 25 per cent over the old assessment of $8,920,730.

The ownership of property of the value of $732,495.

The city of Petersburg owns property to the value of $732,495, which is non-taxable, and in addition to this the churches and benevolent institutions in the city own property valued at $174,115, which is also non-taxable.
